

Georgia Educational Attainment (for the Population 25 years and over) by Change in Percentage 2000 to 2010 in Regional Commissions

Highest Education Level

- Bachelor's degree or higher
- Some college or associate's degree
- High School Graduate (or Earned GED)
- Did Not Graduate from High School (or Earn a GED)

Comparing the 2006-2010 ACS percentages to those from the year 2000 Census, in all Regional Commissions, there was a decrease in the percentage of people who did not graduate high school, and an increase in the percentage of people who attained at least a Bachelor's degree. In addition, in all areas except for the Atlanta Regional Commission, there was an increase in the percentage of people whose highest level of education was "Some College or Associates Degree"